Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

- (1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:
- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
 - (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For access to subpoena materials, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013)

EXHIBIT A
Request for Production of Documents

Unless otherwise stated, the following Definitions shall apply to these Requests:

“Broadridge” means Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., and any of its respective agents, officers, employees, accountants, representatives, attorneys, or anyone else acting on their behalf.

“Chapter 11 Cases” means the cases commenced by the Debtors and currently pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (Lead Case No. 19-30088)(Jointly Administered).

“Communication(s)” means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise) and includes all oral and written communications of any nature, type or kind including, but not limited to, any Documents, telephone conversations, discussions, meetings, facsimiles, e-mails, text messages, memoranda, and any other medium through which any information is conveyed or transmitted.

“Debtors” or “Reorganized Debtors” mean PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company, as debtors and reorganized debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases.

The term “Document” is used herein in the broadest possible sense as specified in and interpreted under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and includes, without limitation, all originals and copies, duplicates, drafts, and recordings of any written, graphic or otherwise recorded matter, however produced, reproduced, or stored, and all “writings” as defined in Rule 1001 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, including Communications, and all other tangible things by which human communication is transmitted or stored, meaning any kind of printed, electronic, recorded, graphic, or photographic matter, however printed, produced, reproduced, copies, reproductions, facsimiles, drafts and both sides thereof, including without limitation any kind of written, typewritten, graphic, photographic, printed, taped or recorded material whatsoever, regardless whether the same is an original, a copy, a reproduction, a facsimile, telex or telefax, and regardless of the source or author thereof, including without limitation, any writing filed for reporting or other purposes with any state, federal or local agency; notes; memoranda, including but not limited to memoranda of telephone conversations; letters; audited financial statements; unaudited financial statements; financial ledgers; intra-office or inter-office communications; circulars; bulletins; manuals; results of investigations; progress reports; study made by or for business or personal use; financial reports and data of any kind; working papers; contracts; agreements; affidavits; declarations; statements; bills; books of accounts; vouchers; transcriptions of conversations or tape recordings; desk calendars; bank checks; purchase orders; invoices; charge slips; receipts; expense accounts; statistical records; cost sheets; journals; diaries; time sheets or logs; computer data; job or transaction files; appointment books; books, records, and copies; electronic mail messages; extracts and summaries of other documents; drafts of any of the above, whether used or not; and any other writing or recording; computer and other business machine printouts, programs, listings, projections, as well as any carbon or photographic or copies, reproductions or facsimiles thereof and all copies which differ in any way from the original, including without limitation, all forms of electronic media, data, data storage and other forms of electronic or computer-stored or computer-generated communications, data, or representations. This includes, but is not limited to, such material in the form of Electronically Stored Information: that is, any data, including Communications, present in memory or on magnetic or optical storage media as an “active” file or files (readily readable by one or more computer applications or forensics software), saved in an archive, present as “deleted” but recoverable electronic files in memory or on any media, and, present in any electronic file fragments (files that have been deleted and partially overwritten with new data) from files containing such material. Where any otherwise duplicate document contains any marking not appearing on the original or is altered from the original, then such item shall be considered to be a separate original document. Any Document that contains any comment, notation, addition, insertion or marking of any type or kind which is not part of another Document is to be considered a separate Document.

“Each” shall be construed as “all” and “each.”

“Electronically Stored Information” means, without limitation, all information contained on any computing device owned, maintained, or otherwise controlled by You, including, but not limited to, mainframe, desktop, laptop, tablet, or palmtop computers, network servers, telephone voicemail servers, employees’ employer-provided home computers, and the personal digital assistants (PDAs), digital cell phones, telephone answering machines, pagers, or other information-storing electronic devices of You and Your employees or agents, or on associated external storage media, backup tapes, and other archival copies of same.

“Extended Securities Claims Bar Date” means April 16, 2020.

“Identify” (with respect to documents). When referring to documents, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).

“Person” means any natural person or any business, legal, or governmental entity or association.

“Prime Clerk” means Prime Clerk, LLC, working in the capacity as the claims and noticing agent of the Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any of its respective agents, officers, employees, accountants, representatives, attorneys, or anyone else acting on their behalf.

The term “Relating To” shall mean describing, discussing, evidencing, referring to, concerning constituting, regarding, bearing upon, supporting, summarizing, pertaining to, alluding to, depicting, involving, embodying, containing, suggesting, mentioning, arising out of, in connection with, or having any logical or factual connection with the matter in question.

“You” or “Your” shall mean Morgan Stanley, Inc. and any of its agents, officers, employees, accountants, representatives, attorneys, or anyone else acting on their behalf.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. You are required to conduct a thorough investigation and produce all Documents in your possession, custody, and control including all Documents in the possession, custody and control of your attorneys, investigators, experts, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, consultants, and anyone acting on your behalf.

2. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural, and vice versa.

3. The connectives "and," and "or," shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

4. If You are unable to comply with a particular category(ies) of the requests below and Documents responsive to the category are in existence, Identify the following information:

- a) The date of the Document;
- b) The type of Document (e.g., letter, memorandum, report, etc.);
- c) The general subject matter of the Document;
- d) The name, address, telephone number and title of the author(s) of the Document;
- e) The name, address, telephone number and title of each recipient and/or addressee of the Document;
- f) The number of pages in the Document;
- g) The document control number, if any;
- h) The present location(s) of the Document and the name, address and telephone number of the person(s) who has (have) possession of the Document;
- i) A specific description of the subject matter of the Document;
- j) The reason why the Document cannot be produced or why you are unable to comply with the particular category of request.

5. You are required to produce the full and complete originals, or copies if the originals are unavailable, of each Document responsive to the categories below along with all non- identical copies and drafts in its or their entirety, without abbreviations, excerpts, or redactions. Copies may be produced in lieu of originals if the entirety (front and back where appropriate) of the Document is reproduced and the Responding Party or its authorized agent or representative states by declaration or affidavit under penalty of perjury that the copies provided are true, correct, complete, and an accurate duplication of the original(s).

6. You are required to produce the Documents as they are kept in the usual course of business, or to organize and label them to correspond with each category in these requests.

7. You are required to produce Electronically Stored Information in searchable form on DVDs, CD-ROMs, via FTP, or any other medium that is acceptable to the requesting party. If necessary, all Electronically Stored Information shall be translated before production into reasonably usable form. Unless otherwise specified, documents, reports, and other Electronically Stored Information created using any version of Microsoft Word, Powerpoint, Excel, Visio, or Access, Word Perfect, Oracle, or any other Microsoft, Adobe, or other currently available "off-the-shelf" application shall be produced in native form; that is, the form in which the document is currently stored on whatever media it currently resides. The document should not be locked, resaved, restructured, "scrubbed" of unapparent or hidden content or any other data or metadata, but rather should be produced in a copy precisely reproducing its entire state as present in Your systems. Electronic mail (e-mail) should be produced in native form; that is, in whatever database and/or file/directory structures are used by Your mail processing software. All metadata and other unapparent or hidden data related to mail messages shall be produced, including, but not limited to, any file attachments, message priority flags, message read/access timestamps, and, in the case of e-mail sent to distribution lists, information on the membership of such lists at the time the e-mail was sent.

8. If You withhold or redact a portion of any Document under a claim of privilege or other protection, each such Document must be identified on a privilege log, which shall be produced contemporaneously with the non-privileged Documents responsive to this Request for Production, and which privilege log shall Identify the following information:

- a) The date of the Document;
- b) The type of Document (e.g., letter, memorandum, report, etc.);
- c) The general subject matter of the Document;
- d) The name, address, telephone number and title of the author(s) of the Document;
- e) The name, address, telephone number and title of each recipient and/or addressee of the Document;
- f) The number of pages in the Document;
- g) The document control number, if any;
- h) The present location(s) of the Document and the name, address and telephone number of the person(s) who has (have) possession of the Document;
- i) A general description of the subject matter of the Document or the portion redacted without disclosing the asserted privileged or protected communication;
- j) The specific privilege(s) or protection(s) that you contend applies; and
- k) Requests Relating To any Person shall include such Person's employees, agents, attorneys, investigators, experts, professionals, officers, directors, representatives, and anyone acting on such Person's behalf.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

- (1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:
- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
 - (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For access to subpoena materials, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013)

EXHIBIT A
Request for Production of Documents

Unless otherwise stated, the following Definitions shall apply to these Requests:

“Broadridge” means Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., and any of its respective agents, officers, employees, accountants, representatives, attorneys, or anyone else acting on their behalf.

“Chapter 11 Cases” means the cases commenced by the Debtors and currently pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (Lead Case No. 19-30088)(Jointly Administered).

“Communication(s)” means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise) and includes all oral and written communications of any nature, type or kind including, but not limited to, any Documents, telephone conversations, discussions, meetings, facsimiles, e-mails, text messages, memoranda, and any other medium through which any information is conveyed or transmitted.

“Debtors” or “Reorganized Debtors” mean PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company, as debtors and reorganized debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases.

The term “Document” is used herein in the broadest possible sense as specified in and interpreted under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and includes, without limitation, all originals and copies, duplicates, drafts, and recordings of any written, graphic or otherwise recorded matter, however produced, reproduced, or stored, and all “writings” as defined in Rule 1001 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, including Communications, and all other tangible things by which human communication is transmitted or stored, meaning any kind of printed, electronic, recorded, graphic, or photographic matter, however printed, produced, reproduced, copies, reproductions, facsimiles, drafts and both sides thereof, including without limitation any kind of written, typewritten, graphic, photographic, printed, taped or recorded material whatsoever, regardless whether the same is an original, a copy, a reproduction, a facsimile, telex or telefax, and regardless of the source or author thereof, including without limitation, any writing filed for reporting or other purposes with any state, federal or local agency; notes; memoranda, including but not limited to memoranda of telephone conversations; letters; audited financial statements; unaudited financial statements; financial ledgers; intra-office or inter-office communications; circulars; bulletins; manuals; results of investigations; progress reports; study made by or for business or personal use; financial reports and data of any kind; working papers; contracts; agreements; affidavits; declarations; statements; bills; books of accounts; vouchers; transcriptions of conversations or tape recordings; desk calendars; bank checks; purchase orders; invoices; charge slips; receipts; expense accounts; statistical records; cost sheets; journals; diaries; time sheets or logs; computer data; job or transaction files; appointment books; books, records, and copies; electronic mail messages; extracts and summaries of other documents; drafts of any of the above, whether used or not; and any other writing or recording; computer and other business machine printouts, programs, listings, projections, as well as any carbon or photographic or copies, reproductions or facsimiles thereof and all copies which differ in any way from the original, including without limitation, all forms of electronic media, data, data storage and other forms of electronic or computer-stored or computer-generated communications, data, or representations. This includes, but is not limited to, such material in the form of Electronically Stored Information: that is, any data, including Communications, present in memory or on magnetic or optical storage media as an “active” file or files (readily readable by one or more computer applications or forensics software), saved in an archive, present as “deleted” but recoverable electronic files in memory or on any media, and, present in any electronic file fragments (files that have been deleted and partially overwritten with new data) from files containing such material. Where any otherwise duplicate document contains any marking not appearing on the original or is altered from the original, then such item shall be considered to be a separate original document. Any Document that contains any comment, notation, addition, insertion or marking of any type or kind which is not part of another Document is to be considered a separate Document.

“Each” shall be construed as “all” and “each.”

“Extended Securities Claims Bar Date” means April 16, 2020.

“Identify” (with respect to documents). When referring to documents, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).

“Person” means any natural person or any business, legal, or governmental entity or association.

“Prime Clerk” means Prime Clerk, LLC, working in the capacity as the claims and noticing agent of the Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any of its respective agents, officers, employees, accountants, representatives, attorneys, or anyone else acting on their behalf.

The term “Relating To” shall mean describing, discussing, evidencing, referring to, concerning constituting, regarding, bearing upon, supporting, summarizing, pertaining to, alluding to, depicting, involving, embodying, containing, suggesting, mentioning, arising out of, in connection with, or having any logical or factual connection with the matter in question.

“You” or “Your” shall mean Morgan Stanley, Inc. and any of its agents, officers, employees, accountants, representatives, attorneys, or anyone else acting on their behalf.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. You are required to conduct a thorough investigation and produce all Documents in your possession, custody, and control including all Documents in the possession, custody and control of your attorneys, investigators, experts, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, consultants, and anyone acting on your behalf.

2. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural, and vice versa.

3. The connectives "and," and "or," shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

4. If You are unable to comply with a particular category(ies) of the requests below and Documents responsive to the category are in existence, Identify the following information:

- a) The date of the Document;
- b) The type of Document (e.g., letter, memorandum, report, etc.);
- c) The general subject matter of the Document;
- d) The name, address, telephone number and title of the author(s) of the Document;
- e) The name, address, telephone number and title of each recipient and/or addressee of the Document;
- f) The number of pages in the Document;
- g) The document control number, if any;
- h) The present location(s) of the Document and the name, address and telephone number of the person(s) who has (have) possession of the Document;
- i) A specific description of the subject matter of the Document;
- j) The reason why the Document cannot be produced or why you are unable to comply with the particular category of request.

5. You are required to produce the full and complete originals, or copies if the originals are unavailable, of each Document responsive to the categories below along with all non- identical copies and drafts in its or their entirety, without abbreviations, excerpts, or redactions. Copies may be produced in lieu of originals if the entirety (front and back where appropriate) of the Document is reproduced and the Responding Party or its authorized agent or representative states by declaration or affidavit under penalty of perjury that the copies provided are true, correct, complete, and an accurate duplication of the original(s).

6. You are required to produce the Documents as they are kept in the usual course of business, or to organize and label them to correspond with each category in these requests.

7. You are required to produce Electronically Stored Information in searchable form on DVDs, CD-ROMs, via FTP, or any other medium that is acceptable to the requesting party. If necessary, all Electronically Stored Information shall be translated before production into reasonably usable form. Unless otherwise specified, documents, reports, and other Electronically Stored Information created using any version of Microsoft Word, Powerpoint, Excel, Visio, or Access, Word Perfect, Oracle, or any other Microsoft, Adobe, or other currently available "off-the-shelf" application shall be produced in native form; that is, the form in which the document is currently stored on whatever media it currently resides. The document should not be locked, resaved, restructured, "scrubbed" of unapparent or hidden content or any other data or metadata, but rather should be produced in a copy precisely reproducing its entire state as present in Your systems. Electronic mail (e-mail) should be produced in native form; that is, in whatever database and/or file/directory structures are used by Your mail processing software. All metadata and other unapparent or hidden data related to mail messages shall be produced, including, but not limited to, any file attachments, message priority flags, message read/access timestamps, and, in the case of e-mail sent to distribution lists, information on the membership of such lists at the time the e-mail was sent.

8. If You withhold or redact a portion of any Document under a claim of privilege or other protection, each such Document must be identified on a privilege log, which shall be produced contemporaneously with the non-privileged Documents responsive to this Request for Production, and which privilege log shall Identify the following information:

- a) The date of the Document;
- b) The type of Document (e.g., letter, memorandum, report, etc.);
- c) The general subject matter of the Document;
- d) The name, address, telephone number and title of the author(s) of the Document;
- e) The name, address, telephone number and title of each recipient and/or addressee of the Document;
- f) The number of pages in the Document;
- g) The document control number, if any;
- h) The present location(s) of the Document and the name, address and telephone number of the person(s) who has (have) possession of the Document;
- i) A general description of the subject matter of the Document or the portion redacted without disclosing the asserted privileged or protected communication;
- j) The specific privilege(s) or protection(s) that you contend applies; and
- k) Requests Relating To any Person shall include such Person's employees, agents, attorneys, investigators, experts, professionals, officers, directors, representatives, and anyone acting on such Person's behalf.
